Seminar Speakers

FRANK CRAWFORD is the majority shareholder and President of Crawford & Associates. Frank specializes in providing accounting and consulting services solely in the area of governmental accounting and financial management. He is past Chair of the AICPA Government Expert Panel, the current and long-time chair of the Oklahoma Society of CPAs Government Accounting and Auditing Committee and has also been involved in a number of other AICPA committees.

KEN HEAGHNEY is the State Fiscal Economist and Research Professor of Economics at Georgia State University, Andrew Young School of Policy Studies. Ken has over 20 years of experience working with business leaders on a wide range of economic problems and issues. Much of his recent experience has been on applying economic analysis to the development and implementation of pricing strategies. As state economist, he is responsible for developing the annual tax revenue forecast for the state's budget and advising the Governor's office on economic and other policy issues.

JOHN HULSEY provides financial management training for state and local government officials and personnel through the University of Georgia's Carl Vinson Institute of Government. Prior to arriving at the Institute in 2012, John served in Jackson County for 17 years as the county's first finance director. Mr. Hulsey is a past President of Georgia Government Finance Officers Association and remains active in the organization.
